

Selene Hofer-Shall for Delegate

- Finance Director, Congressman Peter Welch
- National Trainer, Democracy for America Campaign Academy
- Finance Committee, Burlington City Democratic Party
- Volunteer, Obama for America

I first had the opportunity to work with Senator Obama in the fall of 2004, organizing a large-scale joint fundraising event for Democracy for America and the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee. The night of the event, Obama stepped to the podium, and within minutes, a wave of murmurs washed through crowd that this man would someday be President of the United States. I believed it then as I do now, and the murmur has turned to a roar. Since Obama announced his candidacy, I have registered voters, raised money, corralled voters and volunteers both in Vermont and around the country, and worked tirelessly to get the more apathetic members of my generation involved and energized.

Since 2003, I have been actively involved with Democratic politics at all levels of government. I have worked and volunteered my time for candidates for City Council, State House and Senate, Auditor, Lt. Governor, Governor, U.S. House, U.S. Senate, and President. Through my roles as operations staffer for Dean for America, Operations Director for Democracy for America, Finance Director for two members of Congress (our own Peter Welch and Congressman Ciro Rodriguez, TX-23), and as a Finance Trainer for the DFA Campaign Academy, I have had the opportunity to work with a diverse array of candidates and activists all over the country. Never have I seen such a wave of excitement, enthusiasm and engagement as I do in Barack Obama's campaign, and I am proud to be a part of this incredible movement.

Today, I am asking for your vote as a pledged Obama delegate to the DNC Convention. I would be honored to have your vote, and will be a strong representative for Vermont this August in Denver.

Thank you for your consideration,
Selene Hofer-Shall, Burlington
